To the Board of Directors of Institute for Advanced Studies GAP

Independent Auditor's Report

We have audited the financial statements and supplementary financial data for consolidation purposes of Institute for Advanced Studies GAP, expressed in EUR, for the period ended December 31, 2010. These financial statements and supplementary financial data are the responsibility of the project's management.

Management's responsibility for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with International Accounting Standards. These responsibilities include: designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements that are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error; selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies; and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

Auditor's responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the aforementioned financial information based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISA). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the reporting forms are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the reporting forms. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the proper accounting and reporting of the data on the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial information of the Organization present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Institute for Advanced Studies GAP as of December 31, 2010 and the results of operations in accordance with IAS and Kosovo Accounting Standards.

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES

1.1 Organization and principal activities

The Institute for Advanced Studies GAP (hereafter, GAP) has been active in Kosovo since 2007.

The Institute for Advanced Studies GAP is a Kosovo Think Tank whose main purpose is to attract professionals by creating a professional research and development environment commonly found in similar institutions in Western countries. This will include providing Kosovars with an opportunity to research, develop and implement projects that would strengthen Kosovo society. A priority of the Institute is to mobilize professionals to address the country's pressing economic, political and social challenges. GAP's main objectives are to bridge the gap between government and people, and to bridge the gap between problems and solutions.

On August 17, 2007 GAP was officially registered, as a Non Governmental Organization under Law No. 03/L-134 on Freedom of Associations in Non-Governmental Organizations.

GAP employed 11 staff at 31 December 2010

NOTE 2 - ACCOUNTING POLICIES

2.1 General

The accompanying financial statements and notes to the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standards ("IAS").

2.2 Basis of accounting

GAP prepares its financial statements using the accrual basis of accounting. The functional currency of GAP is Euro  $(\mathfrak{C})$

GAP is obliged to prepare financial statements for local purposes since it is a legal entity.

Notes to the financial statements

2.3 Recognition of Contribution Income

GAP recognized revenue to the extent of the funds being expended on an accrual basis for approved budgetary amounts. It recognizes grants at the moment when it receives them as deferred revenue.

Funds expended during 2010 on an accruals basis generated contribution income from several Donor Contributions.

2.4 Expense Recognition

Expenses are recognized on an accrual basis. When a contract is signed or grant awarded during the year or where an invoice relating to the period is received and the payment is not made before year-end, the expense is recognized in the Balance Sheet as an accrual.

Administrative expenses are recognized in the period to which they relate.

2.5 Cash on hand and in banks

Cash and cash equivalents comprises cash balances and short-term highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less when purchased and are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.6 Accounts receivable and payable

Receivables and payables are recorded at their nominal value in Euro.
